OF THE

Laſt Will and Teſtament

Dr. WILLIAMS.

Daniel Williams of Hoxton near London, Doctor of Divinity, being found in Mind, for which I thank my Bleſſed God, yet ſenſible of Mortality, do make this my Laſt Will and Teſtament, Revoking all other Wills. I commit my Soul to my Bleſſed Redeemer, who I hope firmly has united me to himſelf, and will preſent me Spotleſs to his Father and my Father, in the Vertue of his all-ſufficient Merits. I deſire my Body may be privately bury'd in the New Burying-Ground near the Artillery-Ground, where a Vault ſhall be purchaſed, and a good Tomb erected, wherein any of my and my Wife's Relations may be bury'd; or in want of ſuch, any good Miniſters, as the Place will permit Room for them. And as to the worldly Eſtate wherewith God hath ſo wonderfully bleſſed me, and which I have uſed with Moderation as to my ſelf, that I might be the more uſeful to others both in my Life and after my Death, I diſpoſe thereof as follows, after the Payment of my Debts and Funeral Expences.

Imprimis, Whereas I was to ſettle on my Dear Wife for her Life, Four Hundred Pounds a Year, and thoſe Lands which are the principal Part in the Marriage Settlement are much reduc'd in the Rent, and moſt of them remote; I appoint, that inſtead of that Settlement, and upon the Cancelling thereof, ſhe ſhall enjoy for her Natural Life the Ground-Rents I bought in and near Queen-

ſtreet in Weſtminſter, from one Sutton, amounting to One Hundred and Nine Pounds or thereabouts per Ann. and the Intereſt of One Thouſand Pounds which remaineth in Mr. Benjamin Sheppard's Hand, over and beſides the other Thouſand Pounds in his Hand, which I order him to pay her in a Year after my Deceaſe, as what I covenanted to do; alſo my Dwelling-Houſe in Hoxton with all Gardens, &c. alſo the two Peverills and whole Eſtate in Eſſex, which I bought of Daniel Tanfield, Eſq; which is about One Hundred and Fifty Pounds per Ann. alſo Totham in Eſſex, whereof one Sewell is Tenant, which at the Time of our Marriage was let at Forty Five Pounds per Ann. and is Part thereof; but now reduced to Thirty Eight Pounds; alſo the Temple-Manor in Eſſex, I bought of Mr. Drage, rented at Thirty Eight Pounds, with all the Rents and Profits iſſuing therefrom, and Power to diſtrain and uſe all juſt Ways to recover, in Caſe any of the aforeſaid Rents are unpaid at the two uſual Feaſts of St. Michael and the Annunciation of the Bleſſed Virgin. The firſt Half Yearly Payment to be that of the two Feaſts which ſhall firſt happen after my Death; I alſo add the Annuity due to me during her Children's Lives from the Exchequer, being at preſent Fourteen Pounds per Annum, and ſhall be in her Power to diſpoſe of, as alſo my Coach and Horſes.

Item, I give to my ſaid Wife for her natural Life, all the Jewels and Plate, except my large Baſon, which I leave to Mrs. Wyn, as having been her Father's; and my largeſt Silver Tankard, which I give to my Couſin, Richard Meredith, Eſq; I alſo give to my ſaid dear Wife, for her Life, all my Houſhold Goods, except the Coppers and Ciſterns, which I order to go with my Dwelling-Houſe at all Times; and my Repeating Clock, which I give to Mr. John Evans.

My Will alſo is, that at the Death of my Wife, the ſaid Jewels, Plate, Goods and Linnen, ſhall be equally divided, one half to my Daughter, Mary Sheppard, and the other to my Daughter Elizabeth Barkſtead. And that the Thouſand Pounds in Mr. Sheppard's Hands, ſhall at her Death be thus diſtributed, viz. To my Daughter Mary Sheppard, Three Hundred and Fifty Pounds; or if ſhe be dead, to her Husband and Children; to my Daughter Elizabeth Barkſtead, Three Hun-

Hundred Pounds; to my Son Francis Barkſtead, Two Hundred Pounds; to my Wife's Siſter Stennett, Fifty Pounds; to young Daniel Lofting, Fifty Pounds. Always provided, that my Wife accept of this my Settlement of her Yearly Incomes from my foremention'd Lands and Tenements, during her natural Life, without committing any Waſte to the Prejudice of ſuch as I have aſſigned the Reverſion, nor claim by our Marriage Covenants, which would be ſo much to her own and her Relations Loſs; but if ſhe ſhould chooſe to abide by the Settlement of Marriage, I appoint that may be fully made good, and I revoke all the aforeſaid Diſpoſition and Legacies, which I intended for the Benefit of her, and her Relations.

I alſo give my Son Benjamin Sheppard, my Daughter Mary Sheppard, my Daughter Elizabeth Barkſtead, my Son Francis Barkſtead, Ten Pounds a piece to buy them Mourning. And I deſire my Executors and Truſtees to aſſiſt my dear Wife, and make all Things ſafe and eaſy to her.

I Will that my Brother and Siſter Roberts, and the Survivor of them, ſhall, during his or her natural Life, poſſeſs all that my Eſtate in Burton and Croſs-Howel, &c. in Denbeighſhire, which I bought of Mr. Smith, and have Power to diſtrain and recover the ſame; he and ſhe paying yearly Six Pounds to Mr. Kenlick, or other the Presbyterian diſſenting Miniſter in Wrexham; and Ten Pounds a Year to ſuch a Man as they ſhall appoint to teach Twenty Children to Read and Write, and inſtruct them in the Principles of Religion. But I forbid them to make any Waſte, by cutting down any young Trees or Timber.

Item, I give and bequeath to my ſaid Brother, all my Wearing Apparel; and to the Family of our Kindred the Sackvills, One Hundred Pounds, to be diſtributed amongſt them, to ſuch, and in ſuch Sums as my ſaid Brother and Siſter ſhall judge fit, and not otherwiſe.

Item, Whereas my Couſin, Richard Edwards, deceas'd, owed me Three Hundred Forty Five Pounds Principal, beſides as much more in trading Profit, I have adminiſtred to him; my Will is, that the ſaid Principal, when recovered, ſhall be to my Couſin Hugh Edwards (the Father of the ſaid Richard) and his his Children; and I remit to Dorothy Edwards, the Widow of the ſaid Richard, all the Intereſt and Profits due, ſhe and they being at the Charges of recovering the Effects that belong'd to him, and aſſign the Adminiſtration to her.

Item, I give to Mr. John Welch, to be paid to the Society for the Reformation of Manners, One Hundred and Fifty Pounds for the Education of Youth, &c. unleſs I pay this in my Life-time: And farther, if I pay it not in my Life-time, I appoint, that what Intereſt is unpaid at Eight per Cent. be paid from the Twenty fifth of March laſt paſt.

Item, I give to Mr. Joſeph Boys of Dublin, the Miniſter, One Hundred Pounds; and to the Poor of Woodſtreet Congregation, whereof I was once Paſtor, Forty Pounds; and that One Hundred Pounds be paid to Dr. Duncan Cumming in Dublin to be lent by him, ſo that the Widow, Mrs. Sarah Hartly, may have the Intereſt of it during her Life; and that after her Death, the ſaid Hundred Pounds be paid to the Widow, Mrs. Barrington, Daughter of Mr. Benjamin Pratt. I alſo remit and forgive my Couſin Richard Mere- dith, Esq; the several Sums of Money due from him to me, and give to that Son of his that beareth my Name, One Hundred and Fifty Pounds; and to my Cousin, Elizabeth West, Sister of the said Richard, One Hundred Pounds.

Item, Five Pounds a piece to such Servants as live with me at the Time of my Death for Mourning, if my dear Wife see not Cause to deny it to any of them.

Item, I give to my Kinsman, Hugh Edwards, One Hundred Pounds.

Item, I give to Mr. Samuel Pomfret the Minister, Thirty Pounds; to Mr. John Evans, my Colleague, Fifty Pounds, and the Lease of a House in Plumbtree-street, which I bought of Mrs. Hannah Fox, alias Bradley. To the Poor of Hand-Ally Congregation, Fifty Pounds, of which Fifty Pounds, a Part to Mrs. Haydon and her Partner, and Mrs. Edridge and Mrs. Tompkins; to poor French Refugees, One Hundred Pounds; to the Poor of Shore-Ditch Parish, Twenty Pounds; both these two last Sums to be distributed by my dear Wife, to such as she thinketh fit.

Item,

Item, I give Five Pounds a piece to Mr. Billingſley, Sen. Mr. David Scott, Mr. Cotton, near Ruſſel-ſtreet, Mr. Cook of Clare in Suffolk, Mr. Stevens of London, Mr. Lorrinor, Mr. Hunt of Newport, Mr. Raſtrick of Lynn in Norfolk, Mr. Kempſter, all Miniſters except the laſt; and the ſame to one Mr. Cordell, a Miniſter about Cambridgeſhire, and Mr. Benjamin Robinſon, Mr. Chandler of Bath, and his Brother, all Miniſters; as alſo to Mr. Iſaac Bates of Hackney.

Item, I give Four Pounds a piece to the following Miniſters Widows, viz. Mrs. Taylor about Wem, Mrs. Evans about Olſweſtry, Mrs. Naylor about St. Helens in Lancaſhire, Mrs. Wyne, Mrs. Hardcaſtle, Mrs. Goſnell, Mrs. Webb of Fromley, the two laſt are known to Mrs. Jacomb.

Item, I forgive Mr. Tombs the Fifty Pounds he owes me, provided that he pay Twenty Five Pounds to my Son Mr. Sheppard; and I deſire my ſaid Son, upon the Receipt thereof, to give him no more Diſturbance.

Item, I forgive Mr. Lyford what he owes me; and give him Five Pounds.

Item, I releaſe my Couſin Katherine Taylor of Wrexham of what ſhe is indebted to me; and Authorize my Executors to releaſe Mr. William King the Baker in London, of what he ſtands bound to me, which from the Reſpect I bear to the Parents of his Wife I lent, and am willing to forgive, with all the Intereſt due upon the ſame; if ſhe ſurvive him, I forgive his ſaid Wife, and give her alſo Five Pounds. I alſo forgive Mrs. Dickſey the Nine Pounds which ſhe oweth me.

Item, I give to Mr. Hull, a Tin-man in London, Twenty Pounds; to Anne Jerome Fifty Shillings.

Item, I give the Reverſion of an Eſtate in Elſley in Cambridgeſhire, after the Death of the Widow Maſon, now in Poſſeſſion of it, to St. Thomas's Hoſpital and the Work-Houſe in Biſhopſgate-ſtreet, London, the Rents and Profits to be equally divided between them for ever; part of it is Free-hold, and part of it Copy-hold, valued to me at Fifty five Pounds per Annum.

I give all my Houſes in Burnham to Robert Mecham, Sen. for the uſe of the Presbyterian Meeting there.

Item, I give to the College of Glaſcow, while the preſent Conſtitution of the Church of Scotland continueth, my Houſe and Land in Barnett, in the County of Hertford, let now at Forty Five Pounds per Annum, and the Reverſion of my Lands in Totham in Eſſex, after my Wife's Death; as alſo one Hundred Pounds in Money at preſent. Always provided, that my Truſtees and their Aſſigns ſhall appoint and nominate from time to time, Four South Britons to be Students at Glaſcow, who ſhall receive Six Pounds per Annum from the ſaid College, and alſo Three South Britons, who after they are commenced Maſter of Arts in the ſaid College, ſhall receive Ten Pounds a piece per Ann for Three Years; or otherwiſe two, at Fifteen Pounds a piece, as my Truſtees ſhall direct, and both Sorts to be removed at their Diſcretion, and Succeſſors appointed by them to ſupply their Place.

My

My Will is alſo, that the Perſons receiving the ſaid Ten or Fifteen Pounds, ſhall be obliged to ſuperviſe and aſſiſt ſuch South Britain Youths as are Students in the ſaid College; and when the ſaid Lands of Totham become poſſeſs'd by the ſaid College, I appoint that more Exhibitions be added as the yearly Profit will afford, to ſuch Youths of South Britain, as my Truſtees ſhall nominate to be added; and that they who ſhall receive the Benefit, be aſſigned for the Miniſtry, and appear likely to be Uſeful and Faithful. I appoint that Mr. Oldſworth, Mr. Hocker, and one Jay, who are at Glaſcow, be the firſt who partake of the Allowance; and as ſoon as they are admitted (or either of them) Maſters of Arts, he or they in order receive of the greater Sums; and that next to them the Son of Mr. Stennett, and the Son of Mr. David Scott be admitted; and that in the filling up of the Vacancies, my Truſtees ſhall prefer the Sons of poor Presbyterian Miniſters, equally qualify'd, before others; and that in extraordinary Caſes, they add Forty Shillings a Year, where the Demiſe I have made to the ſaid College will not afford it. I alſo nominate the Son of Mr. Roberts, late of Rotherhith, therhith, a Miniſter, be admitted next to the Son of Mr. Scott; and that if Anneſley Fromantle, the Son of Mr. James Fromantle of London, deſigns for the Miniſtry, and be willing to continue at Glaſcow, he ſhall be allowed by my Truſtees, Four Pounds a Year while he ſtays there, to be added to the Six Pounds before allotted, which I do to teſtify my Reſpect for his uſeful Grandfather, Dr. Anneſley. I deſire alſo that my Truſtees pay the firſt Half Year's Allowance after my Death, to ſuch Students as they find contributed to me at Glaſcow, that the College may be enabled by the growing Profits to anſwer the future Demands; of which Receipts and all Diſtributions, I ordain the College to ſend every Year an Account to ſuch in London, as my Truſtees ſhall direct; and my Truſtees to aſſiſt the College in letting the Premiſes, and receiving the Rents. But it is my Will, that notwithſtanding the aforeſaid Grants I have made to the ſaid College of Glaſcow, that what Time ſoever Prelacy or the Epiſcopal Hierarchy, or Popery ſhall be eſtabliſhed in North Britain, my aforeſaid Grant ſhall entirely and altogether become Null; and the ſaid Houſes and Lands in Barnett and Totham, I give to my Heirs and Truſtees, Truſtees, hereafter named, and for ſuch Uſes as I ſhall appoint more particularly or generally, and that all Writings and Deeds concerning the Premiſes in Poſſeſſion of the College ſhall be reſtored; yea, I do appoint and would hope that ſuch of the Faculty as are faithful to the Intereſt of Chriſt, when they be poſſeſſed of any ſuch Writings and Deeds, and foreſee ſuch Things approaching, will not fail to depoſite them in the Hands of my Truſtees, to prevent the Trouble which may attend the Recovery thereof, eſpecially when all my Grant and Demiſe to the ſaid College is for no longer Time than while the preſent Conſtitution of the Church of Scotland continues. And that 'tis my Will, and I hereby ordain, that as often as the ſaid preſent Conſtitution is reſtored, and as long as at any Time it ſhall continue, the ſaid College ſhall have the full Benefit of this my Grant, tho' ſtill alienable as aforeſaid.

Item, I give to the Society in Scotland, for Propagating Chriſtian Knowledge, One Hundred Pounds with Intereſt at Six per Cent. from the Firſt of this Inſtant, unleſs I ſhall have paid both during my Life, as I have paid the Intereſt of one Year and Half already; I do alſo give to the ſaid Society at the End of one Year after they have ſent Three qualify'd Miniſters to abide in Foreign Infidel Countries, all my Lands and Tenements in and about Catworth in Huntingtonſhire, being let at about Sixty Eight Pounds per Ann. to have and to hold as long as the ſaid Society continues to carry on the ſaid Attempt, for the Converſion of Infidel Countries, and that the Members of the ſaid Society are permitted to be freely elected; but if the ſaid Society be at any Time diſſolved, or the free Election of its Conſtituent Members reſtrained, or that it ceaſe to ſend and maintain a competent Number of well qualify'd Miniſters in Infidel Foreign Countries, to endeavour their Converſion to God in Chriſt, it is my Will that this Grant I have made of the ſaid Lands to the ſaid Society, ceaſe and become void, and the ſaid Lands and Tenements in and near Catworth, I give to my Heirs and Truſtees hereafter mention'd, and for ſuch Uſes as I ſhall appoint. Note, that ſome ſmall Part of this Eſtate is Copyhold, which muſt be taken up, and I deſire, that while the Society is poſſeſſed of this Eſtate according to the aforeſaid Limitation, they would pleaſe to Correſpond Yearly with my Truſtees in London, and when they ſee any Danger of their being diſſolv'd, or perverting the End of their Conſtitution, they would deliver, as I appoint they ſhall deliver, all Deeds and Writings relating to the ſaid Eſtate, and ſurrender the Copyhold to ſuch as my Truſtees ſhall direct; but (which I prefer) I alſo ordain that if my Truſtees think it ſafeſt, Mr. John Evans the Miniſter take up the Copy Part the firſt Time, and aſſign it at the Time I have appointed to the ſaid Society, taking their Engagement to ſurrender it, and whatever Papers and Deeds, and whatever Claim they may pretend unto the ſaid Eſtate if the ſaid Society be diſſolved, or the free Election of the Members be hindred, or that qualify'd Miniſters ceaſe to be employ'd in Infidel Countries, in order to bring them to the Knowledge of Chriſt Jeſus our Lord. Moreover, upon ſecond Thoughts, my Will is, notwithſtanding what I have before ſaid concerning the College of Glaſcow, and delivering up of Writings in the Caſes mention'd, yet I appoint that in order to their Title to the mention'd Houſes and Lands in Barnet and Totham, and receiving ceiving any Writings relating thereto, the ſaid College, or ſome legal and fully impower'd by them, ſhall ſign a Deed to ſome deputed by my Heirs or Truſtees, wherein they ſhall diſclaim all Right or Title to all and every Part of the aforeſaid granted Money and Lands, farther or longer than the preſent Conſtitution of the Church of Scotland ſhall continue.

Item, I give to Mr. Joſeph Thomſon and the reſt of the Society for New-England, my Eſtate in Eſſex, call'd Tolſhant-Becknam-Mannor, or by any other Name; which I bought of Mrs. Hannah Fox alias Bradley, with all the Profits and Advantages belonging to me after the Death of the ſaid Fox now Bradley, as long as the ſaid Society or Corporation ſhall continue; upon Condition that Sixty Pounds per. Ann. ſhall be allowed between two well qualify'd Perſons, as to Piety and Prudence, to be nominated ſucceſſively by my Truſtees, to preach as Itinerants in the Engliſh Plantations in the Weſt-Indies, and for the Good of what Pagans and Blacks lie neglected there, and the Remainder be paid Yearly to the College of Cambridge in New-England, or ſuch as are uſually employ'd to manage the Bleſſed

Work of Converting the poor Indians there; to promote which, I deſign this Part of my Gift; but if my Truſtees be hindred from Nominating the ſaid Itinerants, under the Pretence of any Statutes in New-England, or elſewhere, I give the ſaid Sixty Pounds per Ann. to the ſaid College in New-England, to encourage and make them capable to get conſtantly ſome learned Profeſſor out of Europe to reſide there, and ſhall be of their own Nomination in Concurrence with the Miniſters of the Town of Boſton, in the ſaid New-England; and if the aforeſaid Society or Corporation ſhall happen to be diſſolved or deprived of their Preſent Privilege, my Will is, and I hereby give the ſaid Mannor with all the Profits and Advantages to the ſaid Town of Boſton, with the Miniſters thereof, to benefit the ſaid College as above, and to promote the Converſion of the poor Indians.

Item, I give to my Couſin Stephen Davis, Miniſter of Banbury, and to the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten; and for want of ſuch, to my Son Benjamin Sheppard, and the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten; and for want of ſuch, to Mr. John Evans vans my Colleague, and the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten; and for want of ſuch, to Dr. Edmund Calamy, and his Heirs Male lawfully begotten; and for want of ſuch, to the Magiſtrates and City of Edinburgh in North-Britain, all the aforeſaid contingent Remainders which reſpecteth Glaſcow, or the Society in Scotland, for Promoting Chriſtian Knowledge; as alſo all that's due to me for the Remainder of the Term of Ninety Nine Years from the Exchequer, my Intereſt in the Thames Water, my Eſtate in and about Travallen and Gregsford, which I bought of the Merediths, and that near Holt, bought of Mr. Neavor, and the Eſtate in Burton and Croſs-Howel, which my Brother and Siſter Roberts are to enjoy for Life, or an Equivalent if my Wife accept not of the far more profitable Proviſion I have here made for her and hers; as alſo what I bought of Mr. Maddocks which lies near Clare in Suffolk, with all the Lands and Houſes ſettled on my dear Wife for Life, except Totham, as before diſpoſed of, and all other real Eſtate or Freehold. Nevertheleſs in truſt only as to each and all of my expective appointed Heirs for the Uſes and Intents hereafter ſpecify'd, to ſupport the contingent Remainders, (viz.) that Mr. Wil-

William Lorimor, Dr. Oldfield, Dr. Edmund Calamy, Mr. William Tong, Mr. Matthew Henry, Mr. Benjamin Robinſon, Mr. Zachariah Merrel, of Hampſtead, Mr. John Evans my Colleague, Mr. William Harris, Mr. Thomas Reynolds, Mr. Iſaac Bates, Mr. Jeremy Smith, Mr. Read, Miniſters of the Goſpel; Mr. John Morton, Linnen-Draper; Mr. Edmund Farrington, Jun. Mr. William Adde, Mr. Jonathan Collyer, my Son Mr. Benjamin Sheppard, my Son Mr. Francis Barkſtead, Mr. Arther, Mr. Richard Watts, Mr. Iſaac Honycomb, Mr. George Smith, Son to Mr. Thomas Smith; i. e. ſuch of them as will accept my Truſt, and to chooſe others if any refuſe it, or die before me; and their Aſſigns and Succeſſors may and ſhall (under all the Conditions and Limitations hereafter mention'd) ſtand and remain, and be poſſeſſed of all and ſingular the Premiſes, for and during the Term of Two Thouſand Years, with Power to diſtrain, drive and do all that is uſual and legal to recover the reſpective Rents and Profits iſſuing therefrom; but to employ to the Uſes and Purpoſes as in Conſcience they will be obliged too if they accept this Truſt. And my Will is, that the ſaid William Lorimor, Dr. Oldfield, and the reſt of the foremention'd Perſons and their Aſſigns, ſhall for the Term of Two Thouſand Years from and after my Death, have and enjoy all and every the Profits ariſing from the Claims from the Exchequer, Lands and Hereditaments and Houſes, Remainders and Reverſions deviſed and given to my ſaid Heirs as above-mentioned, they yielding and paying to the ſaid Stephen Davies and his Heirs Male lawfully begotten, and the reſt ſucceſſively as they ſhall ſucceed according to my Appointment above ſpecify'd, the Sum of Eight Pounds per Ann. if lawfully demanded from the major Part of the ſaid Truſtees and their Succeſſors, from Time to Time, producing this my Teſtament in an atteſted Copy when they make their Claim to the ſaid Rents. And my Mind is, that the ſaid Mr. Lorimor, Dr. Oldfield, Mr. George Smith, and the reſt of the Twenty Two foremention'd Perſons that ſhall ſurvive any of the Number, ſuch Survivors ſhall be all ſummoned, and the major Part ſhall, when met nominate other Perſon or Perſons in the Room of the Deceaſed, as they ſhall judge faithful and ſuitable, and Inhabiting in or near London; and the Perſons elected from Time to Time, ſhall ſolemnly engage to be faithful in the Management of what they

they undertake; and those so chosen, shall still concur in chusing whom they think fit to fill up all the Vacancies that shall happen by the Death of any of the Number, either by me now nominated, or shall from Time to Time be elected, that the Number may be preserved full; and whenever at any Time an Election is to be made, all the Survivors shall have Notice of the Time and Place. My Will also is, that such as shall be elected from Time to Time, shall have the same Right, Privilege and Power, as I have given or shall hereafter give to them, whom I have named to constitute the Number at present. My Will is, that the said Mr. William Lorimor, Dr. Oldfield, Mr. George Smith, and the rest of the above-named with them, who accept the Trust, and all that shall be elected by them to concur and succeed them, they, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, some or one of them appointed by them, appointed by the major Part of the rest, shall from Time to Time during the said Term, receive all the Rents, Issues and Profits of the said Premises: And my Mind is, that no Part thereof be at any Time applied to or for the Use or Benefit of any Person or Persons, or Society belonging to or in Communion munion of the Church of Rome. But my desire is, that the Profits may be employed to the Glory of God, in Spreading and Promoting of pure unmix'd Christianity and the Support of the Poor. And hereto as the Condition of my present Grant and Gift refers; therefore my Will is, that they chuse and appoint some pious grave Person for to teach Twenty poor Children for to read English, and instruct them in the Principles of the Christian Religion in these following Towns, for as long Time as my said Trustees shall think fit and meet, and no longer, viz. Denbeigh, Flint, Canarvan, Montgomery, Beaumaris, or else Conway, Merrioneth, or .... Hoft and Chelmsford, paying Eight Pounds per Ann. to every such Teacher, as long as each of the said Teachers shall be approved by the said Trustees, who shall give to each of the Learners one of the Catechisms, commonly called The Assemblies Catechism, with the Proofs at large; and one of my Books called, The Vanity of Childhood and Youth, when they can repeat the Catechism without the Proofs; and a Bible when they can repeat the Proofs. Also I Will the same Method and Way be used and continued with the Learners in Wrexham, after my Brother and Sister Roberts's

Death; and that the Ten Pounds now appointed for the Teacher there, now payable by them, be made Fifteen Pounds per Ann. that ſo Twenty Five Boys may not only be inſtructed as before, but alſo ſuch of them taught to Write, as are willing to learn. I deſire ſome One in each of theſe Towns be deſired to inſpect the Management, and I appoint the Teachers to pray daily with the Learners, and that they be paid faithfully as long as my ſaid Truſtees ſhall approve of them, and that others be nominated upon the Death or other Removal of any of them by my ſaid Truſtees. I alſo deſire that Enquiry may be made after ſuch a Preacher of the Goſpel, being a Proteſtant, and skilful in the Iriſh Tongue, as ſhall be willing as an Itinerant diligently to preach in Iriſh, where he can find an Opportunity for it in Ireland, and ſhall be nominated and approved by Walter Stephens, Eſq; Dr. Duncan Cumming, Mr. Joſ. Bois, Mr. Nathaniel Weld, (in or near Dublin) and their Aſſigns from Time to Time, as well as by my Truſtees, that their Fifty Pounds per Ann. ſhall be paid in Dublin to the ſaid Walter Stephens, Duncan Cumming, *Jos. pay it to the ſaid Itinerant Preacher in Iriſh, as long as they approve of him; and when he ſhall die or be diſallowed by them, another ſhall be choſe to the ſaid Work and Benefit by them, with the Concurrence of my ſaid Truſtees, and they to chuſe ſome other Perſon to convey it by, if the ſaid Stephen Cummings's Aſſigns have none to receive it.

Item, I ordain that the ſaid Mr. Lorimor ſhall receive Yearly, after the firſt Year enſuing after my Death, Five Pounds while he lives in or near London; that Mr. William Evans of Carmarthen, ſhall receive Ten Pounds, per Ann. towards the Support of ſuch Welſh Young Men as are or ſhall be under his Tuition, in order to preach the Word of God in Wales, which I Will ſhall be continued to ſuch a One that ſhall undertake that Work from Time to Time after Mr. Evans quits it, my Truſtees and their Succeſſors approving ſuch Perſons.

Item, I Will that after my Brother and Siſter's Death, Ten Pounds per Ann. be paid to Mr. Burick of Wrexham, while he continues Paſtor of that Congregation where he now preacheth; and the ſame Sum to his Succeſſors in the ſaid Congregation, while it remains in its preſent Conſtitution, Presbyterian.

Theſe Five I alſo deſire may be tranſlated into Latin, and given Abroad; and that of Childhood and Youth into Welſh, and Five Hundred of each thus tranſlated, print-printed the Second Year after my Death, and this repeated but as often as they ſee Occaſion. I Will that my Executors be my Brother Hugh Roberts, and Mr. Francis Wooley, Sen. Lace-Man in London, and them I ordain to be my Executors, and I give my Brother Roberts Twenty Pounds, beſides what I have given him before, and to Mr. Francis Wooley One Hundred Pounds, which is inſtead of all Advantages or other Profits, they can or are to claim by this my Will; and therefore I appoint them after they have paid the Sums of Money which I have bequeathed as Legacies, to be ſhortly paid in the Firſt Sheet, and in the Second Sheet, before and till my Grant to Glaſcow is mentioned, and alſo One Hundred Pounds to the Society in Scotland in the ſame Leaf; and One Hundred Pounds to Mr. Theophilus Parſons, Son to Mr. Thomas Parſons, and retained their own Legacies, and Debts, and Funeral-Charges, and Rings of Twenty Shillings Value, to ſuch of my Truſtees as I have not given any Legacy too, as alſo to Dr. Upton, Dr. Charles Morton, Mr. John Morton's Wife, Mr. Edmund Farrington's Wife, Mr. John Farrington, and to Mr. Richard Stretton, Sen. the Miniſter Twenty Pounds, for Payment of Books for the Iſles in Scotland, which he promiſed, tho' I think I changed it by giving One Hundred Pounds to the Society, which I promis'd immediately after he ſpake to me, and alſo Rings of the ſame Value to Mrs. Kendrick, and each of her Sons and Daughters born of her. My Will farther is, that if the Money owing to me fall ſhort of paying the Legacies or other Sums of Money which I have appointed, or ſhall hereafter appoint my Executors to pay, that then ſuch Overplus of Legacies and Sums ſhall be paid by my aforeſaid Truſtees; and if my Executors ſhall have ſufficient Money to anſwer thoſe Legacies and Sums, that after ſuch Payment, they ſhall deliver up to my Truſtees what ſhall remain, either in Money, Bonds, Leaſes, Thames Water, Copy-hold, Arrears of Rent, and every other Part of my Eſtate, to be received by my ſaid Truſtees, to whom I hereby bequeath all and every Part thereof, except my Library for the Purpoſe before-mentioned, and hereafter to be mentioned, and ſubject to the following Limitations hereafter to be mentioned.

Item, I Will and ordain, that the ſaid Truſtees and Aſſigns, ſhall apply all and every Part

Part of the Yearly Profits of my Eſtate ſo bequeathed to them in any Part of my Will, not appropriated by this my Will or annexed Codicil, in the Manner following, and diſtribute the preſent Profits, and thoſe in Reverſion to the enſuing Uſes, viz. One Eighth Part for Bibles, Catechiſms, and good practical Books in Engliſh and Welſh, to be given to the Poor of different Places ſucceſſively, and this every Year; a Tenth Part to ſuch poor Widows of Preachers of the Word, as they ſhall name and judge fitteſt Objects; a Fifth Part to Preachers of the Word of Chriſt, as are poor, orthodox and moderate, to be choſen and named by my ſaid Truſtees; an Eighth to bind ſober Lads of pious Parents Apprentices to ſome ordinary Trade, and thoſe for the greateſt Number to be of ſuch as were inſtructed in Wrexham, as above appointed; the reſt of ſuch as were inſtructed in any of the other Places in Wales, where I have above appointed an Inſtructor; an Eighth for the farther Education of ſuch for the Miniſtry, as having ſpent Three Years in Studying the other Sciences, after they have left the Grammar-Schools, and remaining hopeful there, being nominated by my ſaid Truſtees, ſhall be aſſiſted to proceed in their Studies two Years longer in Glaſcow, if Scotland ſhall be the Place ordained by my Truſtees; but I leave it to their Diſcretion to chooſe another Place beſides Scotland, as Circumſtances ſhall incline them. The Reſidue of the Profits ariſing from my Real and Perſonal Eſtate, I Will ſhall be paid by my ſaid Truſtees, to ſuch educated Perſons of ſound Judgment and ſober Principles, as they ſhall nominate to preach the Word of God in Wales, a third in South-Wales, the other two Parts in North-Wales; and the firſt Partakers to be Mr. Baddy, whilſt he continueth to preach in Denbeigh, and Mr. Parrott of Denbeighſhire, Mr. Philips in Cararvan, Mr. Howell Powell in South-Wales, Mr. Edward Kenrick, in or near Merionethſhire; provided my Truſtees ſee no Cauſe to alter it or withdraw the ſame. I deſire and ordain my ſaid Truſtees and their Aſſigns and Succeſſors, to meet at leaſt once a Quarter in London, and to allow them Forty Shillings amongſt them for their Expences each of thoſe Quartly Meetings, that they may diſpoſe and order the aforeſaid Affairs and enquire into the Accompts of the Receipts and Payments; and if any of them, or their Succeſſors, ſhall remove a conſiderable Diſtance from London, or voluntarily neglect or betray their Truſt, or be rendered incapable faithfully and diligently to anſwer the Ends of it, That then the Reſidue of the ſaid Truſtees and Succeſſors, from time to time, ſhall chooſe others in the Room of ſuch, and the Diſſallowed be deprived of all Power and Right to intermeddle in any Part of this Truſt, or any Thing relating to the Premiſes. I do alſo ordain my ſaid Truſtees to be the ſole Judges of what may be doubtfully or darkly expreſſed, either as to the Names of my Legatees, or any other Matter; and authorize them to let Leaſes of the Lands and Houſes committed to them at the full Rent from time to time for Nine Years, and that the Expences and Charge of Letters, Defence of Tythe, and Collecting the Rents and Profits, and what elſe is neceſſarily expended about what is left to be managed by them, ſhall be diſcharged out of the Profits, for the ſaid Term of One Thouſand Years; and the like as to my Executors, in whatever reſpects the Execution of this Will on their Parts. And if one or both of my ſaid Executors die, I deſire they would appoint one or more, whom my Truſtees ſhall name, to ſupply their Room, as to their Concerns; if alſo my Heirs ſucceſſively ſhall

be at any Charge to defend what is comitted to their Support, as to my Truſtees, or what ſhall be farther ordered by me, this my Eſtate ſhall defray it. I Will alſo, that the Deeds which convey the reſpective Eſtates to me, be recorded in Chancery, except what lie in Middleſex, which are to be Regiſtered, and the Writings prior thereto which ſupport my Title, kept diſtinctly, by whom my Truſtees appoint two or three of them, having and tranſmitting a Schedule of each, except what concerns New England, which I appoint to be delivered to the Treaſurer of that Society; and tho' I would have the Deeds by which the Lands in Barnet, Totham and Catworth be Recorded, yet that the Deeds and Writings prior thereto ſhall be depoſited as ſhall be adjudged between ſome deputed, by the College of Glaſcow and the Society in Scotland for propagating Chriſtian Knowlege on the one Part, and ſome deputed by my ſaid Truſtees on the other Part. I appoint alſo this my Will be tranſcribed, and my Heirs ſucceſſively have a Copy, my Executors another, and two others be with ſuch of my Truſtees as the major Part of them ſhall appoint: But my Will is, and I ordain that the ſaid Stephen Davis, and his Heirs

Male, and the other appointed Heirs ſucceſſively, and their Heirs, ſhall ſtand and be ſeized of all and ſingular the Premiſes ſettled on them, for the Uſe and Behoof of the Cities of Edenburgh and Glaſcow; after the Expiration of the ſaid Two Thouſand Years, if my ſaid Truſtees be ſuffer'd to apply all and ſingular the Profits to the Uſes and Perſons I have above appointed; or if my ſaid Truſtees at any Time within that Term, ſhall by any Act or Law made or to be made, render'd incapable of Receiving the Profits, and paying them for ſuch Uſes and to ſuch Perſons as they ſhall freely nominate, the ſaid Cities of Edenburgh, and Glaſcow, ſhall receive, and I grant to them to have and to hold for ever, all my ſaid ſeveral Lands, Thames Water, and Houſes, and the Profits thereof; that is to ſay, the Whole at the Expiration of the Two Thouſand Years, if my ſaid Truſtees and their Succeſſors and Aſſigns, be ſuffer'd to diſcharge the Truſt I have committed to them, and remain capacitated to apply the Profits as I have directed; but if my Truſtees are, as above render'd, incapable of Receiving all the Profits committed to them, and diſtributing them, and all of them to all the Uſes and all the Purpoſes I have before appointed. My Will is, and I ordain notwithſtanding any Settlements made thereof on my ſaid Truſtees, ſuch a Proportion of my Lands, Houſes, Thames Water, what is due to the Exchequer, and whatever belongs to them by this my Will at my Death, or in Reverſion if my Will hold and ſhall be executed fully; ſuch a Part, I ſay, as the ſaid Truſtees ſhall be incapacitated to receive and apply to the Uſes for which I inveſted them, ſhall be no longer claimable by them, nor do I intend by this my Will, to give them a Right to, or Power to enjoy any more of my Eſtate than ſhall be applied to the Uſes and Perſons I have before ordained; and they ſhall enjoy and poſſeſs no more of the Profits of my Eſtate and Premiſes, than what they remain capacitated and ſuffered to lay out to the Intents, Purpoſes, and Perſons nominated by them, as I have above directed, and the Remainder and Reſidue not ſo employed and applied, ſhall be to the ſaid Cities of Edenburgh and Glaſcow for ever, to the following Uſes, viz. That if they become inſtituted only to a Part, by the aforeſaid Incapacity of my Truſtees, they ſhall pay Forty Pounds per Annum towards defraying the neceſſary Charges and Expences of The General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, as long as the said Assembly and Church shall retain and continue its present Constitution, and the Remainer to be laid out in erecting and endowing two Alms-Houses, one in each of the said Cities, and these to be built endowed by an equal Division of the whole Profits, between Edenburgh and Glascow, and to be thus expended in Proportion to what shall accrew to them, either at the End of Two Thousand Years, if my Trustees are suffer'd to execute all my Purposes in their Trust as I appointed, or upon their being incapacitated as aforesaid. And I will, that the said Houses be for godly, aged, or other disabled Persons, and that my Trustees and their Successors, shall have Power to appoint One Half of them, either of South or North-Britain, and each of the Poor that are admitted, shall receive Two Shillings a Week, and such as are sent out of South-Britain, to have Twenty Shillings a piece for their Transport thither, and my Trustees to pay the Residue; but if my Trustees and Successors come to an End of the Management of every Part of the Trust I commit to them, then such South-Britons, instead of those my Trustees were to ap-appoint, ſhall be received; moreover I alſo ordain, that if my Truſtees or their appointed Succeſſors, ſhall altogether neglect to attend this Truſt, ſo that none of them meet for the Term of Two Years, to manage any Part thereof, except in a Time of War, or Plague, then I appoint, that if they apply not themſelves, ſome or more of them to manage ſuch Part of the Truſts as are in their Power, within Three Months after the ſaid Two Years, that then the Cities of Edenburgh, and Glaſcow, from that Time, be authorized to aſſume and poſſeſs all and every Part of the Premiſes, which of Right, remained in the Power of my Truſtees to order and manage within the Term of the ſaid Two Years and Three Months, and to be laid out and employ'd for the ſaid Alms-Houſes, with the foreſaid Allowance for the Uſe of the Aſſembly above-mentioned, with an Addition of Forty Pounds per Ann. in this Caſe, as alſo at the Expiration of Two Thouſand Years.

Item, I ordain that the Vote of the major Part of my Truſtees preſent, ſhall conclude every Matter; but that Twelve of them ſhall be always preſent, if ſo many are alive and and near London, free from violent Reſtraint in Settling Leaſes, Electing Succeſſors, and other very important Matters, and in the aforeſaid Caſes of Death, &c. all about London, be ſummoned to Two ſucceſſive Meetings, what's concluded in the Firſt Meeting, Notice thereof being ſent to the Abſent in or near London, and confirmed in the Second Meeting, ſhall ſtand and be valid if the Number be Seven. Provided they have not wilfully omitted to fill up the Number, by Electing others to ſucceed the Dead; and ſuch as reject the Management of the Truſt after they had accepted it, or inhabit above Ten Miles from London, and ſuch as ſhall be voted by Fifteen of my Truſtees to endeavour to betray and fruſtrate the Scope and Purpoſe intended by me, in any conſiderable Part of my Will; for theſe Three laſt are to be ſucceeded as if dead, and others elected by my Truſtees in their ſtead. I Will alſo, that Mr. Jonathan Collyer, Sen. Silkman, giving good Security, ſhall receive and pay what the Truſtees ſhall appoint, and keep the Accounts in a diſtinct Book, a Duplicate whereof ſhall every Half Year be given to One of the Truſtees, whom the reſt agree on, as alſo pay the Legacies as my Executors ſhall di-direct, and for his Labour, ſhall receive Thirty Pounds per Ann. beſides the Charges by Letters and other neceſſary Expences, which is to continue as long as my Truſtees ſhall find no Cauſe to remove him; and he is to ſend Notice of the Meetings when neceſſary, or demanded by any Three of the Truſtees and his Succeſſors to do the ſame, who are from Time to Time to be appointed by the ſaid Truſtees only, and removed when they think fit. I alſo give to the ſaid Jonathan Collyer, One Hundred Pounds, to be paid to him or his Preſent Wife, if ſhe ſurvive him, the Third Year after my Death. And as to my Library, my Will is, the Duplicates, and uſeleſs Books, and thoſe unfit to be ſet in a publick Library, may be given away to ſuch as they may be uſeful to, and want them; (my Dear Wife reſerving what are hers) the Reſidue I appoint for a Publick Library, whereto ſuch as my Truſtees appoint, ſhall have Acceſs for the Peruſal of any Book in the Place where they are lodged; and I ordain my Executors, with the Advice of my Truſtees, to purchaſe ſome other Freehold Edifice, in ſome cheap and convenient Place, without or within the Walls of the City of London, (as a Throwſter's Work-Houſe or the like) with One Room for a ſingle Perſon, whom they my Truſtees, ſhall from Time to Time truſt to keep the ſaid Books, whereof Two Catalogues ſhall be kept, One by the Keeper of the Library, and One by ſuch as the Truſtees ſhall name of their own Number; wherein any other Perſon's Gift of Books, may be inſerted; under them the Names of ſuch Donors as ſhall add to the ſaid Library; and the ſaid Truſtees ſhall pay Ten Pounds per Ann. to the ſaid Library-Keeper, (a Young Preacher ſeems fitteſt for it) giving Security for his Fidelity and Attendance on ſuch Times as they appoint; but if no fit Edifice can be procured, then a ſmall Piece of Ground ſhall be bought, and a Building erected for this Purpoſe, not pompous or too large; and my Executors to Sign a Deed of Truſt to my Truſtees, declaring the ſaid purchaſed Edifice, or that which ſhall be built, to be in Truſt for the ſaid Uſe I appoint the ſaid Place and Books for. And the ſaid Truſtees are to keep the ſaid bought or built Edifice in Repair, and at due Times a Fire to preſerve the ſaid Books. Whereas Mrs. Mary Milbourne, has deviſed by Will to me, Mr. Huges, and Mr. Edmund Calamy, my then Colleague; certain Lands, and Houſes in or near Enfield, with a Sum of Money, in Caſe Nehemiah Fromantle die without lawful Iſſue, before he attain the Age of One and Twenty, and impower'd me to name and appoint any more Truſtees; I do hereby nominate Mr. Thomas Reynolds, Mr. Benjamin Robinſon, and Mr. John Evans, Miniſters of the Goſpel, to be joynt Truſtees; and to have equal Power and Right, as we Three forementiond have had, or ought to have. Leaſt I ſhould be thought by any to give of my own Eſtate, more than is ſo; I declare, that about Fifty Pounds is remaining of the Money, left to my Diſpoſal by the ſaid Mrs. Milbourne, a very conſiderable Part whereof, I lodged to anſwer thoſe Uſes ſhe appointed, in the Hands of a Goldſmith, where moſt of it was loſt; another, whoſe Name he has engaged me to conceal, committed to my Diſpoſal, Twenty Pounds per Ann. and Seven Hundred and Fifty Pounds in Money; but order'd Two Hundred Pounds to be lent to One, paying no Intereſt, and doubt the Whole will be loſt. I beſeech the Bleſſed God, for Chriſt Jeſus ſake, the Head of his Church, (whoſe I am and whom I deſire to ſerve) that this my Will, may by his Bleſſing and Power, reach its End, and be faithfully executed, obteſting in the Name of the Great and Righteous God, all that are or ſhall be concerned, that what I deſign for his Glory, and the Good of Mankind, may be honeſtly, prudently, and diligently employ'd to thoſe Ends, as I have to the beſt of my Judgment directed by this my Laſt Teſtament; Witneſs my Hand and Seal, to this my Will contained in Six Sheets of Paper, each ſealed with my Seal, and ſigned by my ſelf, and every One witneſſed by my Witneſſes, in my Preſence and Sight, this Twenty Sixth Day of June, 1711.
